INTRODUCTION

Built in 1854, The Stirling Highland Hotel is a historic and romantic venue for your special day.

Set in the beautiful city of Stirling, next door to Stirling Castle and a short drive from the Ochil Hills, the hotel is steeped in Scottish tradition, boasting beautiful vaulted ceilings, chandeliers and heaps of character.

Within easy reach of both Glasgow and Edinburgh, it is the perfect setting for the memories that will last a lifetime.

ACCOMMODATION

Unwind after a full day of celebrations in one of our 96 bedrooms.

Each room has its own character, marrying tradition with modernised facilities.

.....

All of our Weddings are catered for by the same team of talented and experienced chefs that run our AA Rosette Accredited Scholars Restaurant.

We are the only restaurant in Stirling accredited with such a prestigious award.

Our menus have been designed to reflect out Scottish roots and the history surrounding both the hotel and local areas.

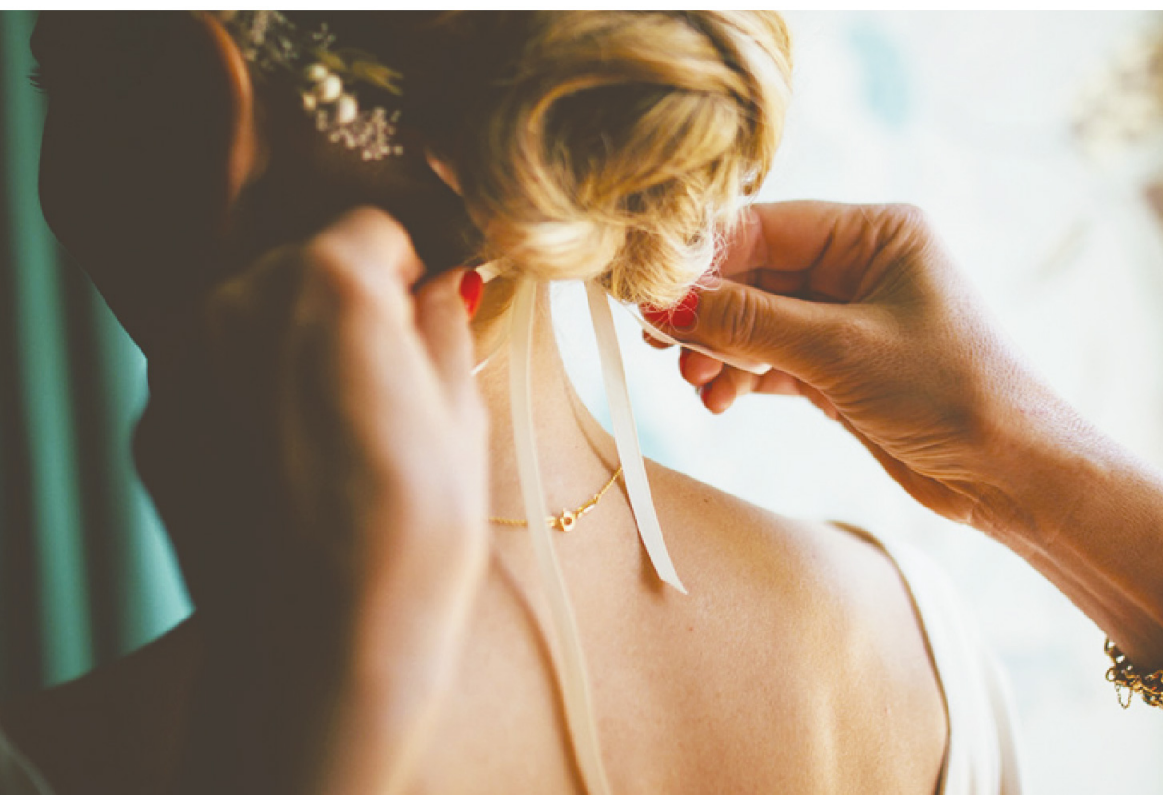

SPACES

The beauty is in the details, that's why our spaces retain their original vaulted ceilings and chandeliers.

In 1889 Sir Henry Campbell Bannermann gifted the school an observatory. To this day the observatory and its 130-year-old telescope is still in working condition on the hotel rooftop. With stunning panoramic views as far as the eye can see our observatory would make for the most magical of photos.

Whether you are looking for a small, intimate wedding or a larger gathering, our venue caters for all.
